

July 18, 2019

Position: Medical Outreach Advocate

Position Type: Non-Exempt/Full Time/Hourly 40/Week

Turning Point of Lehigh Valley, a non-profit working to eliminate domestic violence in the Lehigh Valley, is seeking a passionate, energetic, self-motivated professional to fill its Medical Advocate position. This is a full-time, 40 hour, non-exempt position starting in the mid $30k's with excellent benefits, including competitive wages, health and life insurance. Perfect for a mission-oriented person who has excellent likes a challenge, is a team player who can work independently, and enjoys flexibility in the work-environment.

The Medical Advocate will lead Turning Point's efforts to expand its medical advocacy and outreach efforts. This position's purpose is to help improve healthcare response to domestic violence within various healthcare settings. The Medical Advocate will work to better integrate policies and procedures within the various hospital systems; engage in systems change activities to improve the response to survivors; collaborate with other community organizations; and coordinate professional development opportunities for various healthcare professionals.

Must have proven experience in systems change work (preferably in the healthcare system), strong interpersonal skills, professional demeanor, and the ability to communicate clearly in spoken and written form. Must have a proven track record in successful work within the community and knowledge of the Lehigh Valley. Must have reliable transportation and a valid driver's license. A Bachelor's or advanced degree in Education or in the Social Services field is required. Preferred candidate will be bilingual in Spanish and English.

All interested parties must submit a cover letter and resume to hr@turningpointlv.org

Turning Point of Lehigh Valley is an Equal Opportunity Employer.