The position leads a team of fundraisers, donor experience specialists and other revenue generators.

Key accountabilities include:

- Develop and execute the strategies that deliver the resource development overall revenue goals, and other specific objectives and vision set by the CPO & Executive Team.
- Provide people leadership for the Resource Development team with approximately 15 staff members.
- Conduct direct solicitation from a portfolio of high-net-worth individual donors
- Manage high stakes relationships with individual donors and corporate accounts
 - Serves as the executive leader of the Tocqueville Cabinet
- Develop, and manage the execution of the full donor lifecycle from prospect identification through solicitation and stewardship
- Act as a philanthropic advisor on giving vehicles for the team and donors
- Support organization wide operational strategy as a member of the Executive Team.

Work Experience and/or Education

- 7+ years of experience in leading fundraising or business development in an organization with annual revenue of at least $20M.
- 5-plus years' experience directly supervising staff in a sales or fundraising function.
- Demonstrated success securing high value deals, 5 and 6 figures.
- Experience with major gifts, revenue development, grants, fundraising, sales, retention and upsell strategies ideally in a human services not-for-profit setting,
- Proficiency in Salesforce / CRM and experience in sales pipeline management / move management.

Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals to perform the essential functions. United Way of the Greater Lehigh Valley is an equal opportunity employer.
